PORT NORFOLK LOTS CHEAP!

Having bought all the most desirable lots on the plat of the PORT NORFOLK LAND COMPANY'S property between the tracks of the Norfolk & Carolina Railroad and the water front, we are prepared to sell for cash or one third cash at STARTLINGLY LOW PRICES, for the next sixty days. Persons desiring a home at Port Norfolk cannot afford to let this opportunity pass to secure a lot in the right location and at the right price.

Those thinking of making an investment for profit can buy at a price that will ensure a large return at present values, while the value of lots in this beautiful suburb is increasing very fast. This is the most beautiful residence property on either side of the Elizabeth River.

Rights to lay sewer, water and gas mains in the streets of Port Norfolk has been acquired, and it is expected that the work of laying water mains will begin in the near future. Remember the number of lots is LIMITED and the time in which they can be bought at THESE PRICES is still more limited.

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR

A Big Battle Between the English and the Boers.

President Kruger is With His Countrymen and Directing the Defense—Lord Roberts Repulse of the Boer Commander—Dewet's Force.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)
London, July 21.—A special dispatch from Cape Town, dated to-day, says:—
"Lord Roberts has attacked Middelburg in force, and a big battle is in progress. President Kruger is with the burghers, directing the defense."

The War Office has received the following from Lord Roberts:—
"Pretoria, July 21.—Little, temporarily commanding the Third brigade, reported that on July 19 he came in contact, near Lindley, with Dewet's force. The fighting lasted until dusk, when Dewet's forces, being repulsed, broke into four parties. Little's casualties were slight. He buried his dead."

Hamilton and Mahon continued their eastward march yesterday and should join hands with Poles-Carey to-day near Ergen Fabrik station.

"A herd of the enemy wrecked a train, carrying sick between Krugersdorp and Potchefstroom, July 19."

HEAVY FIRING HEARD.
Lorenzo Marques, July 21.—A dispatch from Machadodorp says that heavy artillery firing has been reported from the neighborhood of Middelburg, where it was reported the Boers have prepared to retire upon the approach of the British. Among the prisoners passing through Noid Gedacht this week were a number of Canadians captured at Greylingstad. Four German officers, who have been acting as President Kruger's military advisers, have just arrived, having orders from Berlin to proceed to active service in China.

Fusion in Idaho.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)
Pocatello, Idaho, July 21.—The Populists held an exciting session of their convention to-day over the rejection by the Democrats the night before of the ultimatum sent to them by the Populists. The Populists would not withdraw the ultimatum, but finally offered to recede if the Democrats would adopt resolutions demanding the immediate discontinuance of martial law in Shoshone county and the abolition of the permit system.

After a sharp debate, involving the Cour d'Alene policy of the State administration, the Democratic convention unanimously voted to close negotiations with the Populists and to fuse with the silver Republicans. A platform was adopted by the Democrats endorsing the national ticket and platform, demanding the election of Senators by direct vote and favoring compulsory reference of disputes between labor and capital to a non-partisan board of arbitration.

To Reward Minister.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)
Minneapolis, Minn., July 21.—A special to the Times from Des Moines, Ia., says:—
"Instead of the proposed memorial service to Minister Conger, his wife, daughter and niece, it is now proposed by the people of Des Moines to send a large party to San Francisco to welcome the family if it returns safely home."

Major Conger is being prominently mentioned for the United States Senatorship. Leading politicians say his election would insure peace in the party in Iowa as that of no other man could do.

McKinley-Hanna Conference.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)
Canton, Ohio, July 21.—President McKinley and Senator Hanna had a prolonged conference to-day, at the conclusion of which Senator Hanna announced his intention of leaving Cleveland for New York on July 22. The Eastern headquarters will be opened shortly after his arrival.

"The speaking campaign," he added, "will not be opened before September 1st. As to what kind of a campaign will be conducted I cannot say at present. The people will decide that, and the committee will merely serve them with the kind of amusement they desire."

Count Castellane Fights.
(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)
Paris, July 2.—Count Beni Castellane, who married Miss Anna Gould, of New York, fought a duel with swords to-day with Count Orlovsky in the outskirts of Paris. In the first assault Count Orlovsky was wounded in the throat and the duel was stopped by the doctors. The cause of the duel was a newspaper article reflecting a quarrel between the two, occurring in 1897 at Beni de Castellane's house. Count Orlovsky charged Castellane with responsibility for the article.

OUR COUNTRY'S PLEDGE TO CUBA.
But two short years ago the nation's heart upheaved with patriotic zeal to free this struggling people from the sting and smart of many most foul, and Cuba's plea.

So nobly made found deep response within Columbia's breast, and the world now knows that plea was met; how swift for sin.

Like treacherous Spain's, her stern atonement flows.

For this most righteous deed each patriot's heart.

Pulsed warm and high in sympathetic bond.

While honor lends to Liberty's fair crest.

An added charm, to which our souls respond.

But whence this strange delay to justify places.

The promised boon of Freedom's peerless stone.

Upon her blood-won diadem of grace, Where it may dwell in splendor all its own?

Hath greed's rapacious hand laid ruthless hold.

Upon the cords that bind our banners down?

Must this bright story have its sequel told.

In dark dishonor? Let the nation's frown.

Be uttered in rebuke both deep and strong.

Let all her borders with the slogan ring.

Until its voice shall crush the monstrous wrong.

And to the right a just deliverance bring.

Turn on the light! ye councilors that wait.

Upon a People's stern and sovereign state.

BERKLEY NEWS AND ADVERTISEMENTS

THREE HOUSES ROBBED
Bold Burglars Make Good Haunts in Berkley.

Lewis Steinburg's Store Robbed of Watches and Jewelry—Died From the Heat—Two Brothers Have a Bloody Fight—Other Items.

Friday night between 1 and 2 o'clock Mr. C. Giraud's residence in Oakdale was robbed. An entrance was effected through one of the front windows, one of the pivots was cut and the blind unfastened. The keys to the bureau drawers were found and every drawer and trunk was unlocked and ransacked, and after getting through with the search the burglars proceeded above to the sleeping apartments, when the inmates were awakened and gave an alarm. A lot of jewelry and a bicycle belonging to Miss Bertha Giraud were stolen. The loss was about $35 or $40.

When their work was completed the parties visited Lewis Steinburg's store, on Liberty street, and effected an entrance through the front door by taking out one of the glasses. Here they heard the robbers about 4 o'clock, and stole between $75 and $100 worth of merchandise, consisting of two watches, three pistols, forty pairs of overalls, twenty pairs of pants and about five hundred cigars. They broke open a trunk and got a $16 suit of clothes that had been left in security, and a lot of other merchandise. The store is attached to the dwelling house, and Steinburg's family heard the robbers about 4 o'clock, and chased them off.

Yesterday morning about 5 o'clock Mr. J. B. Clark saw one of the negroes taking a bundle of goods from under the Liberty Street Methodist Church, and ran down Liberty street to a bicycle and found all the cigars stolen but one box. Mr. Henry Wilson met two negroes some distance from South Norfolk. One had a bicycle and a bundle and the other was carrying a large bundle.

Mr. Clark remembers having seen the negro before.

DIED FROM THE HEAT.
Mr. George H. Walker, a well-known citizen, died suddenly at the home of his sister, Mrs. M. E. Godwin, on Chestnut street, Friday night about 12:30 o'clock, aged about 63 years.

Mr. Walker was overcome by the heat Thursday afternoon, but recovered and worked Friday. He returned home Friday afternoon suffering from a pain in his heart and head. He was a brother of Mr. Emory Walker, and was an old resident of Norfolk, but had lived in Baltimore about six years.

The funeral will be conducted from the Berkley Avenue Baptist Church this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The interment will be in Magnolia Cemetery. Thomas Jefferson Council, No. 109, J. O. U. A. M., and Tidewater, No. 20, Jr. O. U. A. M., will turn out in a body to attend the funeral. See notice.

BROTHER CUTS BROTHER.
Pink Weaver and brother, George Reid, both colored, were in a dispute on the corner of Liberty and Eleventh streets yesterday evening about 6 o'clock, which resulted in a serious affair. Pink cut two severe gashes across his brother's left leg. The two were arrested by Officer McPherson and taken to the station house, where Dr. Morgan sowed up the cuts in Reid's leg.

They were both permitted to go on a forfeit of $250 each until Monday morning.

Vesuvius Has Lost Its Cone.
The fiery crater of Vesuvius, now suddenly silent, was explored by some soldiers of the Italian army, and the cone had disappeared. Several theories are propounded as to why the eruption ceased, but the most probable is that the cone was so high that the output was too strong, and the mountain was unable to sustain it. The general belief is that the eruption was due to subsidence, which is looked upon as providential. Such a happening was as unexpected as are stomach disorders with which people suddenly become afflicted. Slight symptoms are neglected until they become chronic. The remedy to take at the slightest disturbance of the digestion is Hostetter's Stomach Balm, a reliable medicine absolutely unexcelled in all cases of constipation, indigestion, biliousness, or morbid, feverish action of the bowels, increasing the flow of gastric juices, and improving the appetite. Be sure to give it a trial.

GIANT TREES IN OREGON.
Twenty to Thirty Feet in Diameter and More Than 20 Feet Tall.
(From the Morning Oregonian.)
I would like to draw attention to a bunch of immense trees in the mountains of Oregon. They are situated about fifteen to twenty miles from my place, near La Grange, on the O. R. & N. I used to make every year a trip to the mountains, lasting generally eight to ten days, and it was on one of my last trips, about a year ago, that I discovered the north-west side of the divide between the waters of the Bull run and the Hood river, this bunch of giant trees. The trees are very old, and are about 100 feet around about three feet above the base, but these trees could not be compared at all with the big trees I found in the mountains. They were not as big as these giants against these giants. I honestly believe that these giants will grow to a size that will rival the giants of the Pacific Northwest.
